YOUR ENGLISH GUIDE

English tutoring with an edge: Total one-on-one customized language plan prepared for the curious, focused, high-energy, high-profile adult individual. Your Guide has taught and consulted with international clients from every corner of the globe for over 25 years.

Intense and effective: This no-translation method of total focus on the client's needs is not for everyone. Instruction is conducted in a variety of carefully chosen comfortable settings that serve as examples and reinforcement of U.S.A. daily living and commerce rather than in the traditional, dry, classroom setting. Your Guide will literally walk a client on the spot through oral communication scenarios. Taught in full-hour increments.

Areas of concentration:

- Effective communication – written and oral.
- Social and business language acculturation.
- Concentration on correct grammar with emphasis on idiomatic and colloquial expression geared to client's anticipated interaction in U.S.A.
- Broad reading programs to English-language literature and journalism.
- Vocabulary drill, building ease with rich self-expression.
- Assistance in final edits of academic papers or presentations.
- Accent reduction and elocution exercises.
- Overview of North American culture and geographical patterns.

Details – All hours taught personally by Your English Guide who offers:

- A broad background of personal international residencies, languages and education.
- Full empathy in understanding the difficulty of acquiring language proficiency.
- Degreed UCLA graduate English Literature magna cum laude; award-winning journalist, freelance writer, editor and creative writing instructor.
- Background as fully trained Berlitz instructor in Europe, San Francisco and Beverly Hills; trained as live video, real-time, language instructor to Asian clients.
- An experienced business person with emphasis in real estate, law, hotel and travel, and media/communications.
- Strong aesthetic background in arts, design and photography.
